

Contents

Foreword, by Carlo Ratti	IX
Introduction. The future belongs to the cities	1
1 Barcelona. From dictatorship to autonomy	25
2 Turin. From manufacturing to culture	41
3 Pittsburgh. Steel and disease	67
4 Lyon. The government of light	81
5 Milan. From politics to policies (and back)	97
6 Istanbul. Crossroads or monad?	117
7 Wrocław. A city for young people	133
8 Matera. From shame to pride	147
9 Tokyo. Old people and children	167
Conclusions. Putting cities back in the hands of the citizens	181
Bibliography	189